3. News

Blizz announces battleplan for the future

- mid sized raid dungeons – Zul Gurub and Ahn'Qiraj
- major Silithus quest and storyline updates for 1.8
- New world raid encounters with dragons
- More World events – Halloween event, more quests and events at the darkmoon Faire
- Major updates to Alterac – lower player launch req. – from 30 players to 20 – queue improvements – balancing terrain – possibility of siege weapons
- Possible addition of non-intanced capturable objectives in various zones to encourage PvP
- Talent improvements continue for all classes with Druids and Paladins next in line
- Details about hero classes and the expansion will be unveiled at BlizzCon

Why are tabards tucked in with robes? Devs revealed that it's because the bottom half of the tabard has it's own geometry and animation and would clip the robe. Some workarounds have been considered but it's not on their urgent list

Epic class quests are coming for more classes (probably all) – the Druid epic quest is currently receiving concept work

Finally – word that the Eranikus quest storyline will be expanded on in a future patch with a really cool ending and reward…maybe entrance to the Emerald Dream?
